

WFN 7th Annual Women's Health Conference

The 2009 Women's Health Conference theme is "Life is a Full Circle: Finding Hope in the Midst of Change." Registration opens July 6th and closes August 3rd. You can register by calling in or faxing your registration to MAP AIDSLine. After registration closes, we will be sending confirmation letters, with a copy of the code of conduct, that must be returned to be officially registered. Due to limited registration spaces, priority will be given to those who have not attended the conference in past years, those who are newly diagnosed within the last year, and confirmed members of the Women and Families Network.

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

The Women's and Families' conference provides an opportunity for HIV-positive women to take time out from their busy lives and focus on their health and wellness. Experts will present various workshops on living well with HIV and promoting health and wellness in all aspects of life. In addition to workshops, women will have the opportunity to share experiences with other women living with HIV, all in the context of a supportive and relaxing environment.

There is no cost to attend this conference. The conference is open to all women who are living with HIV/AIDS in Minnesota.

Transportation

Bus tokens will be available to women on Sunday morning. If you have additional transportation needs, please indicate this on your registration and we will contact you. We will reimburse mileage for women traveling from Greater Minnesota up to a certain dollar amount.

Childcare Funds

Limited funds for childcare will be available upon request. Please note that requests must be made at the time of registration. There are no children allowed at the conference at any time.

Interpretation

There will be a Spanish and English track for workshops. Interpreters will be available for large-group sessions, which will be held in English.

Accommodations

We are pleased to announce that The Depot Minneapolis, A Renaissance Hotel, will be hosting the conference. The address is 225 South Third Avenue, Minneapolis, MN 55401. Overnight accommodations will be provided for Saturday night. Rooms are shared, and you may request a roommate. We will do our best to put you with the roommate of your choice.
